LIVING THE LITURGY

When God speaks and the Spirit moves, things change.

In the beginning God said "Let there be creation" and the Spirit moved over the waters and reality changed, the world began.

When Jesus came as God's voice to us, and the Holy Spirit was shared with us, we changed, and faith began among humans.

When Jesus said "This is my body....my blood, given for you" the Spirit acted as his energy, and communion was given at the Last Supper.

Today, when Christ's words come again from him, through the priest and his people gathered, the Spirit works his work and our offerings are changed into communion with the real life of our Risen Lord, and his Real Presence.

Real food and real drink for our real communion in the eternal life of Christ Risen— and strengthening our communion with each other as his Body and Blood on earth now.

Happy Feast Day !
